Farmers Of Fraser Valley Demand Milk Price Adjustment

Producers Will Meet Next Tuesday to Agree on Course of Action Following Breakdown of Negotiations for Vancouver-New Westminster Fields

Are Not Calling Movement "Strike"

Canadian Press
New Westminster, Jan. 19.—There are rumblings of a milk strike in the Fraser Valley. Producers do not call it by the name of "strike," preferring to say that under present conditions they can not make further deliveries of milk. They press the fact that with prices they get to-day they can not pay their feed bills, let alone obtain cost of the labor from the milk they send to this city and Vancouver.

For a month representatives of farmers have been negotiating with fifteen distributors in Vancouver. No solution has been reached and a meeting of producers is being called here for next Tuesday to consider what action shall be taken in view of the breakdown in negotiations. The plan is for various local groups throughout the valley to meet the next evening, and that a final meeting of directors of the farmers' co-operative will be held in New Westminster next Friday to agree on a course of co-ordinate action.

Operation Of Pensions Act Sharply Criticized

Canadian Press
Vancouver, Jan. 19.—Unpopular administration of the Canadian Pensions Act was charged in a resolution passed unanimously yesterday evening at a general meeting of ex-servicemen here under the auspices of the Vancouver branch of the Canadian Legion.

WHEAT CROP OF 1933 ESTIMATED

Ottawa, Jan. 19.—Canada's 1933 wheat crop was estimated at 269,729,000 bushels in a report issued to-day by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. This was lower than the November estimate, when the bureau placed the total at 271,821,000 bushels. The 1932 crop (revised figure) was 413,861,000.

FIGURES IN EVENTS IN FRANCE CAUSED BY SCANDAL

The heated debate in the French Chamber of Deputies on the Stavisky-Boyonne Pawnshop scandal which to-day was threatening to bring on two duels in Paris is expected soon to be shared in by Albert Dalmer, right, who recently resigned his cabinet post of Minister of Colonies because of the charges. Socialists and Republicans say the Duc de Guise, left, chief pretender to the French throne, gave the instructions for the big riots of Royalists on the streets around the Parliament Buildings last week. The Duc at present is an expatriate in Belgium.

Indigent Families Beg Way To Coast In Wrecks Of Cars

Parents and Children Face Hardships of the Road and Arrive in British Columbia Destitute; Single Women Hitch-hike to B.C.

Ten Thousand From Outside On Relief

Russian and Wife With Family of Twelve Among Arrivals; Youths and Men Ride in Box Cars and on Flat Freights

Men and youths who steal rides in freight cars, families in ramshackle automobiles begging food and gasoline as they come and even single women, walking when they must and obtaining rides from auto or truck drivers when they can, have made their way to British Columbia to the number of 10,000 since relief schemes were instituted.

Mostly from the Ukraine, but from other parts of Canada too, the men, women and families have swarmed to British Columbia where the climate is more appealing and where relief is more generous and easier to secure than it is in some of the other provinces. One hundred and thirty-nine families reached British Columbia destitute in a period of three months. Most of them came in old automobiles, begging gasoline on their way. The children are usually undernourished and sickly from the hardships endured. The cars which they travel in are worthless. Many of the families, it is pointed out, were relief cases.

Col. W. S. Buell, provincial president of the Legion, Col. W. W. Foster, Dominion vice-president, Robert MacNeil, secretary of the Vancouver branch, Grant MacNeil, former Dominion secretary, A. W. Neil, M.P. for Comox-Alberni and Wilfred Hanbury, M.P. for Burrard, spoke in support of the resolution on pensions.

FIRST BILLS FOR SESSION

Vancouver Seeks Right to Run Busses, Assessment and Tax Sale Legislation

Clerk of Legislature Gives Notice on Private Bills Dates

First announcements of legislation which will come before the B.C. Legislature which will open on February 20 are contained in the B.C. Gazette to-day. Two notices of private bills to amend the Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1921, having been filed.

W. H. Langley, clerk of the Legislature, gives notice that the time limited by the standing orders of the house for receiving petitions will expire on Thursday, March 1. Private bills must be presented to the House on or before Tuesday, March 13. Reports from standing or select committees on private bills must be received on or before Tuesday, March 20.

One of the applications for a private bill amending the Vancouver City Incorporation Act filed by J. B. Williams, city solicitor, is to provide for a by-law to empower the city to establish and operate a motor bus line or system within the city or to points outside its limits. Power is also sought to lease or dispose of the proposed system or to grant franchise rights or concessions. It is specified that no such by-law would be further referred to the electors.

A bill is also sought by Vancouver giving the city power to enter into an agreement with H. A. Flood and associates respecting central heating, as recently submitted to the electors, and to affirm the agreement as regards Wards 1 and 2 of the city without further referring it to the electors.

Another application for a private bill, made by Vancouver, relates to the assessment roll. It asks that in the preparation of the roll for the (Turn to Page 2, Col. 2)

MOVABLE HOME IS DEVELOPED

Associated Press
Seattle, Jan. 19.—Complete with plumbing, heating and air conditioning, a factory-built home which goes right along with the owner when he moves has been developed by North-west Builders.

It fills the need, they believe, of these nomadic business people who rebel at living in apartment houses, preferring a "home of their own."

Here at a great lumber centre of the country research engineers say they have built into movable houses principles which have guided home builders for generations.

Their newest, explained by C. W. Drew, is a dwelling which can be knocked down, packed, crated and shipped and set up again within three weeks.

CHURCH FIRE LOSS IS $6,000

Presbytery in Montreal North Destroyed; St. Vidal Church Damaged

Canadian Press
Montreal, Jan. 19.—Fire which started in the basement of the presbytery totally destroyed the building and damaged the church of the parish of St. Vidal, in Montreal North, to-day. The loss is estimated at $6,000, covered by insurance.

The presbytery is a two-story brick building housing the parish priest, Father Charles Pilon.

Several of the firefighters suffered frost-bites on their ears and faces in sub-zero weather and a heavy blizzard.

BANDS IN CUBA ARE DISARMED

President Mendieta Moved Quickly After Taking Office to End Outbreaks

Havana, Jan. 19.—As Jefferson Caffery, President Roosevelt's representative in Cuba, prepared to embark to-day for Key West, Fla., to meet Secretary of State Cordell Hull, Caffery, Mendieta gave Cuba proof he is determined to restore peace and order to the island.

Caffery will confer with Secretary Hull, who is returning from the Panama Canal Zone, and return to Havana to-night.

After a day and night of riotous celebration of his inauguration succeeding young Carlos Hevia, President Mendieta called out soldiers to search all automobiles for arms because touring bands of oppositionists were reported firing on cars occupied by members of the A.B.C. political society.

Members of the A.B.C. dominated and led the city-wide celebration which followed the veteran Nationalist party leader's assumption of the presidency yesterday.

Strikes allegedly fostered by former war minister Antonio Gutierrez were the chief threat to restoration of peace. These were directed at Col. Fulgencio Batista because of his asserted "military dictatorship."

Havana doctors and lawyers threatened to strike if certain concessions were not granted. However, the newspaper union called off its projected strike and newspapers appeared as usual.

Dominion-Provincial Conference at Ottawa Ends; Statement Soon

Canadian Press
Ottawa, Jan. 19.—The Dominion-Provincial conference ended about 4 o'clock this afternoon. It was announced a statement would be issued early this evening setting forth the resolutions adopted by the conference.

Ottawa, Jan. 19.—The Brownlee committee of provincial premiers was in session at noon to-day and returned to the Dominion-Provincial Conference later with a list of proposed resolutions dealing with unemployment and financing which were being discussed this afternoon.

The committee of provincial law officers working on the model bill to provide uniform companies legislation throughout Canada met again under the chairmanship of Hon. C. H. Gahan, Secretary of State, and the indications were the bill tentatively was approved as to general outline. The provinces (Turn to Page 2, Col. 3)

Premier Bennett Tells Delegates in Ottawa No Bar Will Be Raised to Free Non-party Debate in Commons on Proposal to Raise Funds Through National Sweepstakes

Manitoba Minister Objects To Lotteries

Canadian Press
Ottawa, Jan. 19.—The suggestions of Premier L. A. Taschereau of Quebec that lotteries be legalized in Canada, and that a system of pensions for the needy blind be established, met strong opposition from delegates to the Dominion-Provincial Conference here to-day.

A third item discussed at this forenoon's session, possible assistance to the celebration proposed for next summer in memory of the 40th anniversary of the arrival of Jacques Cartier, received a fair measure of support.

Lotteries may be the subject of a wide-open debate in the House of Commons as Prime Minister Bennett said that was the proper place to settle the question. Mr. Bennett intimated plainly he would offer no objection to such a debate, with party lines erased and members of all parties free to speak and vote as they pleased.

Mr. Taschereau found no support for his proposal and E. W. J. Major, Attorney-General of Manitoba, led the opposition. The Quebec Premier said the people of his province were constantly buying lottery tickets from abroad, and recently an agitation had arisen in influential circles for a legalization of the operation of lotteries in Canada for charitable and educational purposes.

He believed Canada might well keep this great field of lottery ticket money at home, operating similar games here for educational and charitable purposes.

Mr. Major quoted from the report of the commission which recently investigated the situation in Great Britain and recommended strongly against the traffic as economically unsound and morally improper.

It is anticipated a bill will be brought into the Commons or the Senate at the forthcoming session. Last year it came up in the Senate and was carried, but met an overwhelming defeat in the Commons.

Premier L. P. D. Tully of New Brunswick opposed—solely on economic grounds—the scheme to initiate pensions for the needy blind. The great objective now was to see that all Canada as against 79.59 Thursday.

ANTARCTIC VESSEL NARROWLY ESCAPES DESTRUCTION BY ICE

Quarter-mile of Ice Cliff Topples Into Bay of Whales Near Where Byrd Party's Ship Steaming

Associated Press
Little America (via Mackay Radio), Jan. 19.—Rear-Admiral Richard E. Byrd's Antarctic expedition flagship, narrowly escaped destruction to-day when a great ice cliff toppled into the Bay of Whales.

The flagship, bearing most of the members of the expedition, was moving slowly through the Bay of Whales seeking a permanent mooring place from which supplies could be transferred to the permanent camp at Little America.

Admiral Byrd himself was on the bridge. The ship was moving at "slow speed" about 200 yards off the barrier.

Suddenly one-quarter of a mile of the barrier ice, rising from fifty to seventy feet above the surface of the bay, roared into the water.

The flagship was rocked by the force of the splash as waves piled across the calm surface of the water. Members of the expedition described the ice spill as "like a skyscraper collapsing."

Earlier in the day came the closest escape from serious accident which Admiral Byrd and his men yet have experienced. At 4 a.m. the big airplane was swung out on the bay ice, two skis replacing the pontoons with which it previously had been equipped.

The plane was taken up by Chief Pilot June, Assistant Pilot Bolin and Radio Operator Hutchison. Just after the take-off the men on the ship were appalled when they saw both skis were hanging vertically from the plane's undercarriage.

U.S. DOLLAR IN LONDON LOSES

Associated Press
London, Jan. 19.—The United States dollar, buffeted in a busy and erratic foreign exchange market here, closed today at 15.02 to the pound sterling, a loss of 8 1/2 cents.

A decline of 10 cents to the dollar of $5.05 was attributed to selling from quarters connected with recent gold purchases and speculators' profit-taking.

Gold currencies weakened. The French franc closed at 80.21 to the pound as against 79.59 Thursday.

MINNESOTA ABDUCTORS HOLD WOUNDED MAN

Bloodstains in Auto Indicate Edward G. Bremer Beaten as He Was Carried Away by Gangsters in St. Paul

Associated Press
St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 19.—Blood stains on both the front and rear seats of Edward G. Bremer's automobile to-day inspired fears for the safety of the thirty-seven-year-old bank president, held for $200,000 ransom by kidnappers who have threatened him with death.

Splashes of blood smeared the front seat of the Bremer sedan when it was found in an outlying residential district shortly after 10 a.m. Wednesday, it was reported to-day.

Indications were the kidnapped owner and head of the Commercial State Bank was brutally slugged over the head when he resisted his captors as they invaded his car.

Then, presumably, sources close to the family said, the unconscious man who at 8:15 a.m. Wednesday had left his daughter, Betty, eight, at the exclusive Summit Grade School and started for his office, was dragged into the back seat, which also was blood stained.

DEATH THREAT
A ransom note, left at the home of Walter Mabee, wealthy contractor and friend of the abducted man, gave instructions for assembling $200,000 for his freedom and warned he would be killed if police were summoned or newspapers notified.

Fearing his son's life was in jeopardy, Adolph Bremer, chief owner of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Company here yesterday evening begged law enforcement agencies to assist in their efforts to hunt down the abductors, so the family could negotiate.

Lack of word from the kidnappers added to the uncertainty surrounding the case, for which a special detail of (Turn to Page 2, Col. 5) crucial on ex-servicemen and their dependents," because of the various interpretations of the Pensions Act.

"Ex-servicemen are faced with a crisis," declared Col. Foster, who added that members of the Legion had no fault to find with the Pensions Act as it stands, but found much to criticize in the administration of the act by the pension commission. Nor was there any complaint about the attitude of the public, which had shown itself to be most sympathetic.

"Abuses of the Pensions Act will no longer be tolerated. We insist the government's contractual obligations to ex-servicemen be met as faithfully as Mr. Bennett says the Dominion has met its financial obligations," declared Grant McNeill. "We do not wish to foment discontent, but to state the fact that there is a shortage of pensioners."

MR. NEILL'S VIEWS
A. W. Neill, member of parliament for Comox-Alberni, urged moderation "when we go to see Mr. Bennett and the government, which are one and the same." Mr. Neill said he wished to voice another complaint—against the administration of the Pensions Act in British Columbia. "Treatment of old age pensioners here is damnable," he asserted.

charges in the provinces which they left. "We came for my wife's health," said one of the men, "and when we got to the coast, we found the family is asked why they came to British Columbia."

One recent arrival was a Russian from Saskatchewan and his wife. They had twelve children and applied for relief immediately they reached British Columbia. A recent arrival from Spanish from California was a man who had been on the road for thirty years. He had travelled the United States and Canada in a 1923 car and sought relief on arrival in the municipality.

H. T. Whitehead, assistant administrator of unemployment relief, counted ninety men and boys in one day on the top of one freight car between Prince George and Jasper. Other heads were poked from box car doors. On the same day he counted twenty or thirty men and boys traveling on a flat car. They had coal stokers turned up, were huddled together for warmth and their faces were black with the grime of travel, but they were laughing and making a joke of their tour to British Columbia. At one time transients were arriving in Vancouver steadily at the rate of 100 a day.

WOMEN "BEAT THEIR WAY"
Many women have also "beat their way" to British Columbia.

The Kootenay, especially, gets its share of the travelers. Many arrive at Creston and stay there having no money to cross the river, this especially applying to the families which arrive in automobiles for which they have no money to pay ferry charges.

The relief problem promises to be more acute in the next few months. January, February and March, usually are the worst months. After a gradual monthly drop last year up to September the figures started to increase each month.

Among the 97,100 persons receiving relief in British Columbia there are approximately 10,000 who have come to the province since relief schemes were in force, while only about 2,000 British Columbians are on the relief lists of other provinces, according to estimates made by the relief branch attached to the B.C. Department of Labor.

An appreciable reduction would be made in the $500,000 a month expenditure for relief in British Columbia if the Ottawa conference agreed on a plan under which each province would be responsible for its own citizens when they travel to another province to become destitute and a charge on the governments and municipalities.

Figures for November just completed by the relief branch of the provincial government shows the forecast decrease in the number on relief in British Columbia has failed to materialize. There is an increase in the total of those relying upon relief of roughly 2,000 and increases will also be shown in December figures, it is anticipated.

In November, 1932, the figure was 95,000. Last November the total was 97,019. This is exclusive of 4,368 men in national defence camps last November which figure is now estimated to have reached 5,000.

14,000 WOMEN
Included in the 97,019 persons in British Columbia looking to relief for subsistence are 19,871 heads of families and 36,742 dependents. There are nearly 14,000 single women in the province receiving relief.

Although it is specified that any who enter the province since September 30, 1932, can be refused registration on British Columbia relief lists it has been impossible to enforce the regulation to the letter.

Many abuses have been stopped, but regarding refusal to give relief to any entering the province since the date specified it is pointed out that families arrive in the province destitute. They apply for relief. To refuse means that the families would starve.

The influx which has been proceeding for three years has not abated. There has been a big influx during the last twelve months.

Minnesota Abductors Hold Wounded Man

Investigators from Washington have been ordered here.

Members of the American Legion were called on today to make an active search for Edward G. Bremer.

Spurred by the death threat, the local branch of the Legion outlined plans of the search by Minnesota members as well as by members in the neighboring states.

Both Bremer and William Hann Jr. for whose release $100,000 was paid to kidnappers in June last, are Legionnaires.

SAW TWO MEN
George St. Marie, an acquaintance of Edward Bremer, said he saw two men shadowing Bremer the night before he was abducted.

"I heard one of the men say to the other, 'That isn't the man, it's the other,' pointing to Edward Bremer."

Both acted suspiciously, St. Marie said, "and might have been connected with the kidnapping."

Under this plan direct relief would continue where necessary, but be gradually eliminated as the army of unemployed is absorbed back into the gainful occupations engendered by the public works program.

As for western financing, it was the opinion that British Columbia, with diversified industries and productivity, has a fair chance to get back on a safe financial basis with a general improvement in national and world conditions, while "dollar wheat" would save the prairie provinces, where a good crop is prophesied for next summer.

Federally the desire is to get away from the tri-partite system of relief administration. The proposal is that the dominion devote to public works the money it would ordinarily spend for the assistance to the provincial relief operations, and afford the customary assistance in the case of provincial works.

This would leave the provinces to take care of whatever direct relief remains necessary, carrying out their own financing as between province and municipality, and administering the constitutional rights of the provinces, which, in the last analysis, are alone responsible for relief needs along their borders.

NO TRACE OF ENTOMBED MEN

Hull, Eng., Jan. 19.—Although expressing faint hope the entombed men might still be alive, policemen, firemen and laborers were still working at noon today in an endeavor to extricate six men who were buried under a heap of grain and masonry when a grain warehouse collapsed here Thursday.

The rescue workers labored throughout the night, but after hours of effort in which tons of debris and grain had been removed, there was no trace of the men.

Ten others were injured in the accident, one critically.

Thirty men were at work in the building when without warning the warehouse crumbled and fell into the street.

Police and ambulances rushed to the scene and began the work of extricating the injured. One man, pinned beneath a fallen timber, could not be moved until a police surgeon amputated a foot by which he was held.

will have until March 1 to study its details. If they accept it then an attempt will be made to get it enacted by parliament and the legislatures.

STATEMENT AWAITED
As the delegates went into session this morning.

It was believed definite pronouncements would be made late today on the following items:

Methods of meeting further unemployment and relief problems.

What means may be adopted in co-operation with the federal government or individually to rehabilitate the finances of the four western provinces.

The advisability of initiating on a large scale an assisted land settlement scheme.

LIQUOR TAXES
Resolutions were also expected on the question of a downward revision of the excise and customs taxes on liquor, and the suggestion that breweries be regulated to a certain extent.

The conference was expected to close late today.

R.C. REQUESTS REJECTED
Yesterday requests of Premier Pattullo of British Columbia that the Pacific Great Eastern Railway be absorbed by the Canadian National and that an economic commission be appointed to study the province's status within Confederation and the claim it within Confederation, were denied by the federal government.

The railway, it was declared, would only prove an additional burden to the Canadian National, while the economic status of the province with relation to the rest of Canada could be dealt with by negotiation with the Dominion Government, if necessary.

PUBLIC WORKS
As the conference continued their discussions today it was reported to be the general opinion, shared by the Dominion Government, that public works should be safely launched on the considerable scale early in the spring.

With the Federal Government setting the pace and the provinces doing as much as they could finance.

Under this plan direct relief would continue where necessary, but be gradually eliminated as the army of unemployed is absorbed back into the gainful occupations engendered by the public works program.

CELEBRATION FUNDS
Premier Bennett was disposed to give some assistance to the Jacques Cartier celebration, also to the tercentenary proposed for Three Rivers at the same time, but perhaps not on so large a scale as had been suggested. All the provinces intimated they would co-operate, but not if it involved a great expenditure.

All M. Henriot had to do, the second decided, was to retract his statement.

But M. Henriot refused to retract anything. M. de Monzie, therefore, insisted preparations for the duel to go on.

M. Paul-Boncour telephoned from Geneva to say he had aided Madame Stavisky as a lawyer before she was married to Stavisky.

HARRISON FISHER PASSES AWAY

Associated Press
New York, Jan. 19.—Harrison Fisher, fifty-six, artist, died unexpectedly today in Doctors' Hospital here after an emergency operation yesterday evening.

Mr. Fisher, ill for four months, was taken to the hospital Thursday. He underwent the operation yesterday evening and at the hospital it was said he had recovered from the operation and was expected to-day. The cause of death was not disclosed.

Mr. Fisher, born in Brooklyn, N.Y., July 27, 1877, was educated in San Francisco, England and France. He illustrated numerous books and short stories for periodical publications. His work also included portrait painting and sketching.

Although Mr. Fisher frequently championed American girls as the most beautiful in the world, he never married. He explained he had "seen too much of them," and besides, he had been too busy.

Mr. Harrison was almost as well known to people in Canada as citizens of the United States. Many magazines displaying work of his were distributed throughout Canada for years.

DEPUTIES MAY MEET IN DUELS

Paris, Jan. 19.—Two duels involving deputies appeared imminent today—both resulting from the Stavisky scandal.

A negro member of the Chamber of Deputies, Joseph Samuel Lagrosilliere of Martinique, slapped Deputy Desire Ferry, editor of the newspaper, Le Liberte, twice in the face in the lobby of the chamber this morning.

Lagrosilliere said he understood Ferry had coupled his name with perjury charges in connection with the collapse of Serge Stavisky's Bayonne pawnshop and the resultant loss to investors of $40,000,000.

Ferry replied to the slaps with a punch in the jaw.

ANOTHER PROBLEM
Previously, while the cleaners still labored at their sweeping, seconds for two other notables met in the Chamber to decide which of their principals had been offended in another argument.

They represented Anatole de Monzie, Minister of Education, and Deputy Philippe Henriot.

M. Henriot asserted in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday that Mme. Stavisky, widow of Serge Stavisky, founder of the fallen Bayonne bank, was arrested for robbery in 1926, and that M. de Monzie paid her a call in jail.

M. de Monzie was absent at the time, but rushed to the Chamber when informed and vehemently upbraided M. Henriot. The latter said the minister had received an exaggerated version of his speech. They agreed to appoint seconds to examine the stenographic report and decide whether a fight would be in order.

SWORDSMAN CALLED IN
These seconds selected Francois Poirier, former cabinet minister and noted swordsman, to decide whether the two principals really ought to fight a duel and which one, under the code of honor, had been offended.

Meanwhile Deputy Ferry said he had decided the "judicial antecedents" of Lagrosilliere could not permit their meeting on the field of honor and he had decided to complain to the law.

The seconds in the De Monzie-Henriot challenge decided the latter really had not insulted M. de Monzie. M. Henriot had asserted that Madame Stavisky, widow of the pawnshop founder, was arrested for robbery in 1926 and that De Monzie paid her a call in jail.

He was accused of having written letters to the King demanding money.

Now the forty-three-year-old engineer, who is unemployed, must keep the peace for three years under two sureties of £100 each.

TO TRY TO BE HAPPY
Mr. Justice Charles of the Old Bailey, London's famous police court, gave Haddon friendly parting words.

"May I, perhaps, dropping the judge for a minute and as one man to another, appeal to you to put that maggot out of your brain and try to be a happy fellow?"

The court reached its decision after the defendant, in a surprise development, had pleaded guilty and then heard his claim that he was a son of the late Duke of Clarence attacked by the Attorney-General.

The date of Haddon's birth was set at 1882—two months before the Duke of Clarence, the elder brother of King George, visited India. It was on this visit that Haddon claims the Duke met his mother.

Haddon arrived at the court with several women companions this morning. He kissed each of them before he entered the dock.

When called on to plea, Haddon said, "Guilty under extreme provocation."

The Attorney-General, in a statement on the facts of the case to-day, said the charges were serious.

"The fact that they relate to His Majesty really does not affect the charges," he declared.

In the letters Haddon was accused of having written to King George, he alleged he asserted his kinship with the royal family and asked a £600 annual "income."

Antarctic Vessel Narrowly Escapes Destruction By Ice

June looked down at the undercarriage and saw something was loose.

When the plane came down its skis were wobbling as the air speed diminished.

It was doing fifty miles an hour at landing time. Just as the pilot leveled it off, the plane pulled up the nose—close to the stalling angle.

The tail skid struck first and the shock of the flat landing, together with the sudden decrease in air speed, threw the skis into a horizontal position for a moment.

June set the machine down. Loose snow sprang up about the skis and the plane was obscured by the drift flying in the propeller wash.

When the cloud of snow died down, June and his men were safe.

FEWER MOTHERS ON PENSION LIST

Average in City Drops from 106 in 1932 to Eighty Last Year

Stringent control over mothers' pension cases, which come under the relief and welfare department, resulted in a saving to the city of nearly $7,000 on this item last year as compared with 1932, according to figures released to-day.

The average of monthly cases was cut down from 106 in 1932 to eighty last year, the number of dependents falling accordingly from 191 to 135.

Each family, on the average, received $17.01 against $18.24 the previous year and the amount per person dropped from $7.04 to $6.32.

The total cost for the year was $16,328.09, compared with $23,200.80 in the previous twelve months.

The average amount paid to each mother during the year was $204.10 against $218.87, and this figure when divided among the mothers and children came out at $75.94 for each person dependent on the pension, against $78.14.

The city paid on account of fourteen boys and girls in the industrial market at an average of $22.08 a month against $30.82 in 1932, the total for the year being $5,300 against $5,548.92.

The number of maintaining persons in the mental homes increased from $30,57.97 to $32,604, although the average number of monthly cases declined from 182 to 172.

ROYAL KINSHIP CLAIM IS ENDED

Sir Thomas declared "the facts tendered to me are quite impossible for Haddon's claim to be true."

"Haddon has been treated with considerable forbearance," he said, adding: "He has been writing letters and making these false statements since 1924. He published a book in America, but failed to get it published here."

Haddon was charged with having attempted to blackmail the King through his assertion that he was an illegitimate son of the King's late elder brother.

He was accused of having written letters to the King demanding money.

Now the forty-three-year-old engineer, who is unemployed, must keep the peace for three years under two sureties of £100 each.

FRENCH FRUIT DUTIES ARE CUT

Paris, Jan. 19.—Refusal of buyers to purchase United States apples and pears because of the heavy tax on them, to reduce by more than sixty per cent its duties on fruits from the United States.

pear-apple quotas for the United States were increased in return for wine quota increases, and French importers recently raised their prices.

This resulted in such decreased sales, they said, that not a single order had been placed with the United States since the taxes were announced.

The government, which had assured the United States of a full 22,000-ton fruit quota, consequently faced a flood of unmarketable fruit, or else a collapse of its wine quotas.

In consequence the taxes will be reduced from 125 francs (about $8) to 40 francs (approximately $2.50) for a quintal or 220 pounds of apples. For pears the tax will be reduced from 175 francs (currently $11.15) to 60 francs (about $3.72) per quintal.

Ottawa, Jan. 19 (Canadian Press).—A motion to make voting compulsory in Canada will be presented to the House of Commons at the coming session by Dr. P. J. Lafleche, Conservative M.P. for Richmond-Wolfe, Que. In the last Dominion election 75 per cent of the electorate voted.

MORE RENT FOR PIER ISLAND

Exchequer Court Raises Prison from $420 to $1,400 Yearly Sum for Doukhobors

Canadian Press
Ottawa, Jan. 19.—Expropriation by the government of Pier Island, just north of the Saanich peninsula of Vancouver Island, for utilization as a penitentiary for Doukhobors had its sequel in the Exchequer Court here yesterday, when Mr. Justice A. K. Macleane gave a judgment in favor of Cornelius Hawkins, O'Halloran of Victoria, as trustee for the owner of the island, stepping up the yearly rental payable by him from $420 to $1,500.

"The Doukhobors are people who go around the country in organized parties in the nude," stated Mr. Justice Macleane in giving judgment.

QUESTION OF VALUES
The plaintiff claimed a "stigma" had been placed on the island near Victoria, following the appropriation, and that a neighboring island, Knappa Island, had depreciated in value owing to its proximity to the penitentiary for the Doukhobors. There will be a reference for the purposes of discovering the value of timber on Pier Island.

The Doukhobors, referred to total 560 and are located in compounds, the sexes being separated. In addition to being confined behind wire, the prisoners are under constant surveillance. The case was heard in the Exchequer Court last June, but Mr. Justice Macleane reserved judgment until yesterday.

Robert Harvey of Victoria and Mr. O'Halloran represented the plaintiff, while the government was represented by Lindley Crease, K.C., and Gordon Cameron.

FARMERS STUDY C.C.F. SCHEMES

Albertans to Have Platform Ready For Their 1935 Convention

By Sam Ross, Canadian Press Staff Writer
Edmonton, Jan. 19.—A roadway was being built to-day for the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation to become part and parcel of Alberta provincial politics.

Charges of errors in strategy and domination of the C.C.F. by Labor preceded adoption of a resolution by the United Farmers of Alberta twenty-sixth annual convention yesterday.

The resolution recommended the U.F.A. directors "prepare a provincial political platform in time for the U.F.A. 1935 annual convention, including in the platform the policies of the C.C.F. which are practicable and applicable to provincial affairs."

THIRTY-FOUR HURT IN CAR CRASH

Associated Press
San Francisco, Jan. 19.—Thirty-four persons were injured, five seriously, when two suburban street cars crashed head-on at Mission and Twenty-eighth Streets here yesterday, after an inbound car had run into an open switch and veered over to the outbound tracks and directly in the path of the other car.

Both cars were traveling at crossing speeds, which, police said, probably prevented a heavy death list. The accident happened so quickly that passengers had no chance to jump to safety. Trapped on the front platforms and in the interiors of both cars, they were hurled in all directions, receiving severe injuries.

The crash of the two cars, with the splintering of wood, screaming of passengers and breaking of glass, aroused the entire neighborhood. Uninjured passengers and residents of the district quickly dragged the injured from the wrecked cars.

Dr. Kiang Kang-hu Is Held In China

Montreal, Jan. 19.—Concern has been felt at McGill University since a report came from China that Prof. Kiang Kang-hu, chairman of the department of Chinese studies at McGill, in China on leave of absence, had been arrested by police of the Nationalist Government on suspicion of aiding the rebel cause in China. Information obtained to-day indicated a protest would be made to the Chinese government at the McGill savant's arrest.

Professor Backs Sea Serpents

Montreal, Jan. 19 (Canadian Press).—The famous sea serpent which has been amazing citizens of Scotland for the last several weeks has a firm supporter in Prof. V. C. Wynne-Edwards, zoologist at McGill University here. Prof. Wynne-Edwards, who crossed the Atlantic several times last summer during the course of a study of migratory birds, stated to-day he "would be very much surprised if sea serpents did not exist."

"Evidence dating back as far as the sixteenth century can be found to prove the existence of such a beast," he said.

QUOTA SLASH HITS CANADA

Canadian Minister Protests Seventy-five Per Cent French Import Cut

Canadian Press
Paris, Jan. 19.—Hon. Philippe Roy, Canadian Minister to France, yesterday handed the French government a memorandum pointing out the repercussions on Canadian exports from the French quota reductions of January 1, which roughly reduced former import quotas by seventy-five per cent.

French officials said the memorandum had been transmitted to the Foreign Office and the Ministry of Commerce, where it would receive sympathetic consideration with a view to preserving the agreement recently signed by Canada and France.

(Britain also protested the big quota reductions and it was announced last week they would be ameliorated so far as British exports were concerned.)

MACDONALD NOT CHANGING RIDINGS

British Premier, Heckled at Meeting, Will Be Candidate in Own Constituency

Canadian Press
London, Jan. 19.—The mixed reception accorded Prime Minister MacDonald when he opened the National Government's speaking campaign Wednesday evening in his own constituency of Seaham Harbor up in Durham yesterday to several of his friends urging him to vacate the seat and run in the coming by-election for the Scottish Universities.

The Prime Minister, who told the Seaham meeting that when the time comes for restoration of the pay cuts imposed by the National Government in 1931 the restoration would be carried out impartially, aroused considerable opposition when he said the present government leaders were agreed the cuts were necessary.

Mr. MacDonald is understood to have promptly rejected the suggestion he forsake Seaham Harbor. The coming by-election for the Scottish Universities is to fill the seat made vacant by the death of D. M. Cowan, National Liberal, one of three members returned by acclamation in the last general election.

The idea behind the proposal that Mr. MacDonald change his seat was understood to be that he would thus simultaneously secure a further vote of confidence and also become the representative of a constituency possessing a distinction and dignity of its own.

NEW POST FOR EARL STANHOPE

British Foreign Under-secretary; Lord Strathcona War Under-secretary

Canadian Press
London, Jan. 19.—Appointment of Earl Stanhope, Under-secretary for War, as Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs in succession to Captain Anthony Eden was announced officially yesterday.

Later yesterday the government confirmed the report of the appointment of Lord Strathcona, grandson of the First Baron Strathcona and Mount Royal, who was once governor of the Hudson's Bay Company, as Under-Secretary for War.

The cabinet post of Secretary for Foreign Affairs is held by Sir John Simon.

The new Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs followed a military career to the end of the Great War, when he was a general staff officer. Born in November, 1880, he served throughout the South African campaign. In the Great War he went to the front in November, 1914, with the First Battalion of the Grenadier Guards.

He became parliamentary secretary to the War Office in 1918. From 1924 to 1929 he was a civil Lord of the Admiralty and the next two years was Financial Secretary to the Admiralty, before becoming Under-Secretary for War. Seventh holder of the title, he is fifty-three years of age.

WAS COMMISSIONER
The Third Baron Strathcona was a conservative member of the House of Commons for North Cumberland for four years before inheriting the barony from his mother in 1926. From 1923 to 1926 he was Parliamentary Private Secretary to the First Lord of the Admiralty. From 1926 to 1930 he was a member of the Indian Statutory Commission.

Vote Of Confidence For French Premier

Associated Press
Paris, Jan. 19.—The national defence of France will not be weakened in the face of "rearmament of another country," declared Premier Camille Chautemps before the Senate yesterday. He was given an overwhelming vote of confidence—286 to 3—on his disarmament policy.

The Premier ended a Washington declaration ending the traditional neutrality policy of the United States.

"We hope," Premier Chautemps told the Senate in commenting on President Roosevelt's message to the Wilson Foundation recently, "the President will go so far as to say neutrality in the face of an aggressor can no longer be maintained."

France Ends Trade Treaty With Germany

Paris, Jan. 19.—France to-day denounced its trade treaty with Germany, to enable reprisals in the tariff war between the two countries, already at Jaggerheads over Chancellor Hitler's armament demands.

Formal notification that the commercial treaty of 1927 between the two countries would be scrapped, was sent yesterday to Ambassador Andre Francois-Poncet for presentation to the German government in Berlin to-day.

TAX WARNING

Winnipeg, Jan. 19 (Canadian Press).—The Manitoba government tax branch has served a ten-day demand on more than 500 Dominion civil servants employed in Manitoba, asking payment of the 2 per cent wage tax since last May 1, it has been learned.

If the amounts asked are not paid within ten days, the demand stated, proceedings would be instituted. The government has about $11,000 at stake in uncollected wage taxes.

YOUTH WANTS TO KNOW

When the Prime Minister of Canada was in Vancouver recently he addressed a large body of young men who had asked him to give them a message of hope and encouragement. A number of questions were submitted to him and an answer to them was expected. As one newspaper put it, he gave them instead a "rapid and elementary lecture on money, a bit of oratorical charlatanism that would not intrigue the mind of anyone past puberty"—and ignored the specific questions to which it had been expected he would give consideration.

Youth is still wanting to know what its prospects are. It is not to be supposed that governments will be permitted to forget that the thousands of young men and young women who are continually being turned out of Canada's educational establishments must have some assurance of opportunity to apply the knowledge which has been imparted to them at a great expense to the taxpayers of the country as a whole. An insight into the present-day mental processes of these young men and young women may be obtained from a letter sent to The Regina Leader-Post from which the following paragraphs have been extracted:

What is Canada going to do about me? What is Canada going to do about all the other boys and girls who graduated in my class this year? And what about the classes who have graduated during the last four years?

There is lots of work to be done in Canada. There are highways to build. Thousands of people live in hovels—so there are houses to build. Lots of people need clothing and food and luxuries—if comforts are to be considered luxuries. This work should be done.

It is not as though we were lazy. We are not. We are just asking to get to work. We are willing to work for a decent wage. We do not want food that we have not earned nor clothes that are given to us by the state.

Is there no one in the country who is willing to champion us?

Which of the three so-called leaders in Canada today is willing to give up a second thought?

Where is there a man who is willing to spend a little time wondering what is to become of us? We are tied hand and foot. The people who have the jobs are people who have held them for a long time. They are afraid to experiment for fear that they may lose by it, so in order to retain what security they have they leave us well enough alone and say "let some other fellow take the risk."

We want to go to work. We think we should have a chance to get a home together and be able to marry some day.

We think it is wrong to destroy food and not give us a right to earn it. We think it is wrong to curtail production while we are in want. We believe it is wrong to spend money on munitions for war while we walk the streets looking for jobs in order to buy shoes.

They talk about Hitler and Mussolini but at least these men have the humanity to think about the youth of their countries. At least they care what is to become of the boys and girls who are graduating like we did this year—and they are trying to give them something to do.

Is there a decent man—who has any influence in this country—who would be willing to make a cause of the problems of the youth of Canada? We haven't heard of one. But if we did—that would we care about political stripe—it won't buy us independence. We want a leader.

In session at Ottawa with the Dominion government at the present time are the Premiers of all the provinces, accompanied by other Ministers and officials. How far this conference will be able to influence policies which will improve the economic condition of the country, and thereby bring encouragement to Canada's youth, will not be known until a full account of the deliberations has been given to the public. More than ten millions of Canadians are expecting much of it.

DOUBLOONS STILL CALL

From as far back as we can remember in Victoria, someone here has always been going to Cocos Island, or interested in someone who was going or selling stock to send someone to locate the "enormous treasure" said to be buried there, off the Central American Coast, by pirates of the old Spanish Main—who are reputed to have used the island as their deposit safe. We have always been pretty much of a Cocos Island-minded community, although it has to be admitted that up-and-coming places like Vancouver, with its Leckie expedition of two years ago, of late have been giving more practical demonstration of their devotion to the cause. But Victoria has the satisfaction of recalling that it was loyally supporting Cocos Island expeditions before some of these upstart places were even on the map. Longer experience may have tempered our enthusiasm, but in our hearts we know that the good old Cocos Island tradition still rules strongly here.

For that reason, there will be interest here in the announcement from London that a crowd of adventurers are going to fare forth again in search of the elusive doubloons. The prospectus of the company, to which the convincing title of "Treasure Recovery Limited" has been given, says that "£12,000,000 may be considered a conservative estimate of what may be recovered from Cocos." But, in order to place the matter on its factual plane, the directors in the same document admit that the whole venture, of course, is a "gamble." However, they are so determined to locate the treasure this time that they are ready to stay on the job for two years, "if necessary," to get it. This, too, is to be an expedition of some standing, for among its personnel are such persons as Commander F. A. Worsley, who sailed with Shackleton in the Endurance, Mr. Stafford Jolly, the explorer, and a hard-headed navy man in Rear-Admiral T. J. Lyne.

Cocos, of course, has been searched and researched by treasure hunters for generations. Companies have been formed in almost every western land and expeditions sent out. But they have all returned without finding anything. Parties sponsored by such lovers of adventure as Sir Malcolm Campbell have combed the island. They have dug and used all kinds of apparatus for detecting the presence of hidden metal. But so far none has been rewarded with the thrilling thud of spade striking an ancient treasure chest.

However, this never daunts your true Cocos Islander, who only sees in failure so far proof that the hoard of gold and gems is still intact and that he himself is not too late to have his chance at finding it. We on this coast, it must be admitted, have done our part in the past in the Cocos hunt, and it is thus good to know that others have taken upon themselves to keep up the old traditions.

A LOGICAL POLICY

Intimations from Ottawa that the Canadian government is about to curtail other forms of relief and embark upon a public works programme similar to that launched in the United States by President Roosevelt, can be taken as having the endorsement of John Maynard Keynes, Britain's outstanding economist of the post-war period.

In a letter to the press early this year, dealing with the outlook and possibilities, Mr. Keynes urged an enlarged programme of government expenditures as of paramount importance at this stage of the economic cycle. He opposed depreciation of exchange as futile and destructive and emphasized that rising prices are no good unless accompanied by increased consumption to counteract the natural tendency of such a rise to restrict buying through the sheer inability of consumers to buy.

This is all in line with the "Work and Wages" policy espoused last year by Premier Pattullo. He and his Finance Minister, Mr. Hart, may also draw satisfaction from Mr. Keynes's letter in their campaign for lower interest rates on British Columbia's debt. The importance of a lower rate for longer term investments to stimulate new borrowings for capital expenditures is emphasized by the British economist. He goes so far as to suggest that government debts might well be refunded to cut the rate in some cases as low as 2.5 per cent.

A LITTLE OUT, MR. MARCOSSON

Writing in the current issue of a popular United States weekly, Mr. Isaac F. Marcossion talks about conditions in the country "north of NRA"—Canada. He begins by telling his readers that the Canadian-United States frontier does more "these shifting days" than separate the domains of two peoples. It marks the line of cleavage between widely-differing processes of recovery.

North of NRA, the well-known writer and traveler continues, individualism and voluntary regulation of industry combine for steady improvement without pyrotechnics, and says: "Save for government purchase of wheat for stabilizing purposes, a few loans to the Prairie Provinces, and a guaranteed loan for the Canadian Pacific Railway, Ottawa, as supervising agency or angel, is out of the reconstruction picture." We quote here Mr. Marcossion's reference to Canadian internal business and her external trade:

"Although this article is more concerned with processes than with statistics, it may be well to point out at the start that, without fuss or furor, the index of the physical volume of Canadian business—the economic pulse of the nation—advanced by thirty-two per cent between February and November, 1933; that industrial production increased forty-three per cent in the same period; that wholesale prices have risen ten per cent, with no appreciable rise in the cost of living; that purchasing power is up twelve per cent; that in six months unemployment dropped from 1,043,999 to 755,831; that shipments of lumber, as part of the thirty-seven per cent increase in exports, have exceeded the 1929 peak figures; that the favorable balance of trade for 1933 approximates $128,000,000, as compared with an adverse balance of $150,000,000 in 1930."

It is fairly safe to say that when Mr. Marcossion puts the drop in the number of unemployed in the last six months at 288,168 he is basing his statement on incorrect information. A little more than six months ago a Minister of the government at Ottawa stated that considerably more than one million Canadians—workers and families—were receiving relief in one form or another. The latest estimate of the number of actually idle workers is around 700,000, a reduction of several thousands in the last six months.

Mr. Marcossion's reference to trade requires explanation. He is not far from the mark when he says that the 1933-favorable balance is approximately $128,000,000. He is a little out when he puts the adverse balance in 1930 at $150,000,000. The official figures issued by the Department of Trade and Commerce at Ottawa show that it was $128,011,280. But the total export and import trade of that year totaled $2,393,211,652. For the twelve months ending last November the total export and import trade totaled $918,009,089.

Mr. Marcossion says his article "is more concerned with processes than with statistics," so we presume he did not think it necessary to argue that an adverse balance of $128,000,000 with a total trade of nearly $2,400,000,000 is obviously a better bargain than a favorable balance of practically an equal amount on a turnover of $918,000,000. The unemployment total, of course, is explained by the drop of $1,471,000,000 in the Dominion's external trade since 1930.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

A ZIGZAG COURSE
The Baltimore Sun

During the late war ocean convoys would steer a zigzag course with a view to fooling the enemy submarine. Mr. Roosevelt appears to be trying the same method apparently on the Socialists and Tories. He steers first left, then right, then left again. This probably keeps the radicals and reactionaries guessing. At least, it serves the purpose of confusing the rest of us.

DIETING TO PROSPERITY
The Saskatoon Star-Phoenix

Competent farm experts suggest that if Canadians ate the variety of native foods, including what they consider to be a proper quantity of dairy products and meats, it would be a healthier country and the agricultural acreage in Canada would be only slightly more than enough to feed the population of this Dominion. There would be no vast quantities for export unless further land were brought under cultivation. And so, if the improvement in living standards had extended to foods, on the basis suggested by the agricultural experts, there would be no farm problems.

Loose Ends

We import some lower aspects of American culture—we don't know how to use the telephone—or the automobile—the deep apples imagine they are Joan Crawford—and we postpone mending the roof.

By H. B. W.

HOLY THINGS

THE ONE and only Almee Semple Hutton (formerly McPherson) has found a new way of serving her God. She is holding public debates (with an admission fee) with a Mr. Charles Lee Smith, head of the American Association for the Advancement of Atheism. She is proving that there is a God and she is supporting her arguments with an interesting collection of bones, skulls and stuffed monkeys, to show that the theory of evolution is all wet.

This is altogether a charming spectacle and will interest historians as a picture of our times. It is interesting, I mean, that the utterly negative theory of atheism is being spread through the world now by a well-financed organization, while at the same time a lady like Almee sets herself up as the chief defender of the Deity.

Just what use it is to spread atheism I cannot imagine, nor what satisfaction either. If a man believes in atheism, that is his business, but why bother to spend his time and money trying to make other people disillusioned and unhappy also? And, on the other hand, if the theories of Christianity and other religions are sound, why should anyone need to listen to a defence of them by a person like Mrs. Hutton?

The net result of such efforts, indeed, is likely to be the exact opposite of what the promoters expect—people will undoubtedly be driven more and more to religion by cheap showmanship which seeks to make an empty thing like atheism into a creed, and they will certainly be driven away from religion, if they are normal, when it is preached by Almee.

Fortunately the theory of evolution will probably withstand all Almee's arguments, bones, skulls and stuffed apes. And the great cause of things which is known by a variety of names in different countries and ages is not likely to be altered very seriously by Mr. Smith, even with his eloquence and his admission fee.

The only question unsolved is why anyone in these hard times is foolish enough to pay to witness such a dull and profitless spectacle, and why we always have to import into Canada the very lowest manifestations, instead of some of the really fine aspects of American civilization. They have great men and women down there doing great things. And we bring Mr. Smith and Almee, and wonder why our American neighbors are becoming so cheap and vulgar.

NUMBER, PLEASE?

IF YOU WILL look through the advertisements these days, you will find that when they want to picture a great and successful man they nearly always picture him with a telephone in his hand. The telephone is supposed to be a mark of distinction and achievement, though any person with a nickel, no matter how degraded and illiterate, may talk on a wire all day.

The fact, of course, is that despite the universal use of the telephone few people know how to use it. The great men, who are pictured in the advertisements with telephones in their hands, are usually the worst telephone operators in the world. Indeed, to find anyone who really can talk into a telephone properly is a rare experience.

Now that the telephone has become the normal means of intercourse between human beings, now that you talk to your friends more often by a wire than directly within their sight, the schools should train the rising generation in a reasonable telephone technique. But I fear it is too late.

a poor creature with a face like a deep apple pie. But she had read the beauty ads. She had believed them. She had convinced herself that all she needed to look like the latest thing from Hollywood was adequate make-up.

So she spent the entire evening, instead of listening to the speech on ancient Spanish literature, in powdering her nose, rouging her cheeks and painting her lips when she thought no one was looking. And I spent the entire evening watching her. I learned nothing of Spanish literature, but I got a great idea on female psychology and the tragedy of blighted womanhood. For at the end of the lecture, when I could get a good look at her, I found that the poor girl was still a deep apple pie with a few red blotches on it; and red blotches, you know, simply don't go with deep apple pies.

That poor girl, you say, is happy in her ignorant bliss.

Ah, yes, but some morning she is going to wake and look in her mirror and discover the awful truth. Some day she is going to see a deep apple pie and realize the resemblance. There must be millions of that sort, millions of deep apple pies, who are awaking to the horrible truth and blighting their lives. It is a grave responsibility that the beauty makers are taking when there are so few real beauties. So many deep apples.

POISON

One of the most poisonous and effective pieces of propaganda going about the world these days is the idea that because business is improving, therefore the thing to do is to leave the whole economic system alone lest you injure its recovery in some way.

Down in the States there is a big school of industrialists and financiers who are trying to persuade Mr. Roosevelt to content himself merely with a recovery of prosperity, and to put off permanent reform until after good times return.

Mr. H. G. Wells says it is nonsense to suppose that good times are returning, that there can be no real good times while every nation is locked up in a watertight compartment getting ready to fight its neighbors. But even admitting that good times are returning, the argument against permanent reform at this time is obviously silly. And for this simple reason—that when times are good, reform is impossible. When times get good no one will want to reform. The public, being prosperous, won't want to do anything of the sort and the big boys never want to do anything of the sort.

Periods of prosperity are always periods of deepest reaction and conservatism. We never mend the roof when it's not raining. It's only when it starts to leak that we begin to worry about it. If we don't make permanent changes in the system during the depression, we never will. Then, of course, after the good times which seem to be returning in spite of all our efforts to prevent it, we shall have another bigger and better depression. Anyone who can add two and two together can figure that out. Mr. Roosevelt, knowing that this is his last opportunity, has wisely told Congress that he is not just planning recovery for the next year or two, but reform of the system for good, to make recovery permanent. In Canada we are doing neither. When good times come, the big boys will say that they have been vindicated in their policy of doing nothing. And when the next depression arrives they will be dead and won't have to worry.

FRED FRAME—famous racing driver.
Winner of Indianapolis Speedway Classic,
1932. Winner of Elgin Stock Car Race, 1933. Holder of twenty-one national and international world's straightaway records.

Here's what a Famous Racing Driver says about the
NEW FORD V-8

"I PICKED a Ford V-8 for the 1933 Stock Car Race at Elgin and I thought it was a great car when it brought me home in front. It takes a lot of automobile to average 80.22 miles an hour for 200 miles over a course like that. It was tough going all the way.

"When I heard that the 1934 Ford V-8 was even better than the 1933 job I was just a little doubtful.

It just didn't seem possible, but I thought I'd find out.

"I could see it was better-looking but I wasn't much interested in that. The thing a racing driver looks at is the engine. How does it sound? How is it built? How fast will it go? How does it stack-up on gas and oil?

"So I took it out on the road and opened it up. It held the road like a veteran and the way that speedometer touched the top numbers was something to talk about. If I'd had that car in the Elgin race I'd have averaged closer to 90 than 80.

"You can put me down as saying this New Ford V-8 is going to go places in 1934. It's a sweet job all the way through and that new dual carburetion system is going to save you a lot of money on gasoline."

SALMON EGGS IN FINE CONDITION

Total of 400,000 Will Be Delivered at Lake Cowichan in Four Years

Lake Cowichan, Jan. 19.—J. H. Castley, in charge of the Dominion Government hatchery, states that the 100,000 Atlantic salmon eggs, forwarded from rivers of the Scottish Highlands, arrived in perfect condition.

The salmon eggs were brought across the Atlantic by the steamer Montrose, shipped across the continent by Canadian Pacific express and forwarded by air in Nanaimo from Vancouver were delivered here by car.

The latest consignment of salmon eggs from Scotland were sent to augment a similar shipment received last year, and two other consignments of 100,000 will be made in 1935 and 1936, so that at the end of the four-year period a total of 400,000 eggs will have been delivered here from the famous Scotch waters.

A shipment of 300,000 brown trout eggs were also delivered here last week from Wisconsin.

Catarrhal Deafness May Be Overcome

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or are even just a little hard of hearing or have head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmit (double strength) and add to it a pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from catarrhal deafness. Closed nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dripping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone losing hearing or who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

SALVATIONISTS
IN REUNIONFormer and Present Bands-men Honored at Dinner and Concert Yesterday

The Victoria Salvation Army honored former and present bandmen at a very successful and enjoyable reunion dinner and concert held yesterday evening in the Citadel, Broad Street, the gathering at dinner being supplemented by about 250 friends, who came in later for the musical programme.

ROLL CALL

Col. Thomas Scott of San Francisco, first divisional commander for British Columbia in 1889, presided. An honored guest was Envoy Mrs. Laura McGill, now of Vancouver, who as Miss Laura Akenhead, was commanding officer of Victoria corps in 1890, and the organizer of the original band.

A roll call of former bandmen and members followed the following present: Mrs. James Stewart, Mrs. John Weber, Thomas Ralph, Horace Bowles, Richard Horn, William McArthur, R. D. Noble, J. Jackson, Mrs. R. G. Duggan, T. Ealing, R. J. Porter, P. Ramsdale, R. C. Noble, Charles Harlett, Cecil Slade Jr., Reuben Lamb, Sidney Matthews and Mrs. R. C. Noble.

Following the dinner, Adjutant Roger Thierstein welcomed the visitors and voiced the appreciation by the local corps of the services rendered by the past and present bandmen. The suggestion that such a reunion be held originated by Bandmaster William Ratcliffe, he explained. In his brief response, Bandmaster Ratcliffe stated that the reunion had been arranged that new members of the band might meet former members.

EARLY DIFFICULTIES

Col. Scott reviewed some of the early history of the Army, recalling the first debates within the ranks when the first band, comprised of the seven members of the Fry family in England, was admitted into the Army services. From this tiny beginning, the first band grew, and other corps took bands into themselves. To-day Toronto, with an Army of 4,000, has twenty bands, the speaker explained.

Envoy McGill in her interesting address was reminiscent of the difficulties faced by the corps which pioneered in Victoria. She voiced her appreciation of the many blessings accruing to her through her long association with the Army.

MUSICAL NUMBERS

For the musical part of the programme the Citadel band of twenty-five pieces, was assisted by two guest soloists, Miss Nellie Bowles and Edward Lydall of Vancouver. Bandmaster T. Woods delivered an appropriate reading, "A Tribute to the Veterans."

Col. Scott was chairman. The complete programme follows: Prayer, Mrs. A. J. Thierstein; reading, "A Tribute to the Veterans," Bandmaster T. Woods; cornet solo, "Colleen," Bandmaster Edward Lydall; vocal solo, "Comrades Listen," by four bandmen; instrumental duet, "Shining Armor," Bandmaster Ratcliffe and Bandmaster Chalk, accompanied by Sonstner M. Halsey; vocal solo, "A Crown of Life," Miss Nellie Bowles, accompanied by Sonstner M. Kill that COLD!Don't Merely Coddle It with Half-Way Measures!

A cold is nothing to trifle with! It may end seriously, a cold, being an internal infection, calls for an internal treatment. It also calls for a COLD-remedy and not something good for a number of other things as well.

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine is what a cold requires. It is expressly a cold remedy. It is direct and internal—and it does the four things necessary. It opens the bowels, combats the cold germs and fever in the system, relieves the headache and "ripply" feeling and tones and fortifies the entire system. Anything less than that is taking chances with a cold. Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine is sold by all druggists, 50¢ and 50¢. Accept no substitute.

British Museum Trustees to Decide Fate of Novelist's
Letters and Papers

London, Jan. 19 (By Thee T. Champion, Canadian Press Staff Writer).—Dickens lovers the world over will await with interest the decision of the British Museum trustees concerning a series of letters and other papers written by the novelist, and which may now be available for publication.

The recent death of Sir Henry Dickens, last surviving child, aboves the Museum trustees from a promise made to Sir Henry and to his sister, Mrs. Perugini, who pre-deceased him a few years ago, that these letters should not be published during their lifetime. It is understood the letters may throw light on certain aspects of Dickens' domestic life.

More interesting than these, though, may be the life of Charles Dickens, written by Charles Dickens for his children in 1840. In that year Dickens became editor of The Daily News for three weeks. He retired to Switzerland and wrote the "Life".

In quite recent years Sir Henry Dickens refused a publisher's offer of £50,000 for this MS. It is understood he regarded the book as a personal gift from his father to his children, but he stated he would have no objection to its publication after his own death.

IT'S LIVER THAT MAKES YOU FEEL
SO WRETCHED

Wake Up Your Liver Bile and Get A New Lease of Life. No
Calomel Is Necessary.

For you to feel healthy and happy, your liver must pour two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels, every day of your life. Liver Pile. All without that bile, trouble starts promptly. Your food just won't digest the way it should and your bowels are sluggish. Food doesn't assimilate and your entire system is undermined by this poisonous waste matter. You have indigestion—the discomfort of gas, bloating, heartburn and sourness. You are prey to headaches. Have a tongue like cotton-wool, a nasty taste in your mouth, bad breath and ugly skin. You haven't anything like the pep a healthy person should have. In fact you are generally wretched.

How can you expect to clear up a condition like this completely by taking mere bowel-movers like salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or shoving alum, or roughage? They can't wake up your liver bile!

Avoid calomel (mercury). Buy yourself a box of old reliable Carter's. It's the only safe, reliable, sure, gentle, safe. They'll wake up your liver without upsetting you. Bring back the good-to-be-alive feeling once more.

Don't waste your money on substitutes. Be definite. Ask for Carter's by name and get them. Look for the name, Carter's, on the red wax seal at all drug stores.

At all drug stores.

B.C. ELECTRIC

Some of the dishes of old New England have been handed down from generation to generation. They are particularly adapted for winter use when hearty fare is wanted. Boston baked beans at Saturday's supper and codfish cakes on Sunday mornings are the old-fashioned rule still observed by many New England housewives.

Boston baked beans are a nourishing and satisfying food that make a well-balanced meal if served with brown bread and a crisp salad of cabbage or greens.

BOSTON BAKED BEANS

Two cups pea beans, 1-3 pound salt pork, 2 teaspoons salt, 1 tablespoon molasses, 1 tablespoon brown sugar, 1 teaspoon powdered mustard, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 small onion, 1 cup boiling water.

Pick over and wash beans. Cover with cold water and let stand overnight. In the morning drain and cover with fresh water. Bring slowly to the boiling point. When water begins to boil drain and add the molasses, mustard, brown sugar, salt and onion. This prevents them from becoming broken and mushy during baking. In the bean pot put a thin slice of the salt pork and place the molasses, mustard, brown sugar, salt and onion. Add half the beans. Cut through and remaining pork every half inch, making cuts one inch deep and put on top of bean.

At remaining beans, leaving the rind of the pork exposed. Mix salt, mustard, pepper, molasses and sugar with boiling water and pour over beans. Add enough more boiling water to cover. Cover bean pot and bake in a slow oven for six hours, removing the cover for the last hour of baking to allow the rind to become brown and crisp. Serve them from bean pot.

Boston brown bread always is steamed rather than baked. Raisins may be added to suit the modern taste, but the original "Boston Brown" was made without them.

BOSTON BROWN BREAD

One cup graham flour, 1 cup granulated cornmeal, 1 cup rye meal, 1/2 cup molasses, 1/2 cup molasses, 2 cups sour milk, 2 teaspoons soda.

Mix rye meal, corn meal and graham flour with salt. Add milk and molasses and mix thoroughly. Dissolve soda in a teaspoon cold water and stir into batter, beating hard for about thirty seconds. Turn into well-buttered mold and steam four hours. Or steam three and one-half hours and bake in a moderate oven for twenty minutes. Do not fill mold more than two-thirds full and fasten cover securely. Otherwise the bread in rising might force off the cover.

For steaming, put the mold on a trivet or any form that will elevate it about an inch from the bottom of a steaming pot. Add boiling water to come up half-way around the mold, cover closely and steam, adding more boiling water as necessary. One pound baking powder boxes make attractive shaped loaves or a five-pound lard pail can be used if regulation molds are not at hand.

TO-MORROW'S MENU

Breakfast: California grapes, cereal, cream, shirred eggs, crisp toast, milk, coffee.

Lunch: Beef broth with noodles, lettuce rolls filled with salad of cottage cheese and apple, graham muffins, milk, tea.

Dinner: Boston baked beans, scalloped tomatoes, Boston brown bread, candied and pickled peach salad, pumpkin pie, milk, coffee.

WELFARE WORK

Seventh Day Adventists Distributed 426 Pieces of Clothing Last Year

Under Pastor N. C. Ernston, the Seventh Day Adventist Church made considerable progress last year, reports at the annual business meeting Wednesday night indicated. Considerable welfare work was done, with 426 articles of clothing distributed. Mrs. Ernston, who has charge of this branch, stated. The financial report presented by R. E. Robinson was satisfactory revealing a surplus on hand after all commitments had been met.

The report on Christian uplift work was given by Mrs. T. P. Andrews, who stated members of the church had been quite active in this regard. The elders for 1934 will be R. E. Robinson and J. W. Wagner, and those designated as deacons for the year are F. A. Dooley, A. White, A. G. Anderson and A. Stevens.

Sunday school superintendent F. O. Blake will continue in this post, and V. L. McKay will lead the young people's group. Mrs. C. Williams, as home clerk, and Mrs. T. P. Andrews as home missionary secretary, complete the roster of officers.

G. H. Walton and R. S. Twining Wardens at St. Luke's for 1934

Officers of St. Luke's Church were elected at the annual meeting in the Parish Hall Wednesday evening as follows:

G. H. Walton, rector; warden: R. S. Twinning, people's warden: church committee, Messrs. Bell, Goodland, Hallier, Harding, Harwood, Maddock, Whitehead and Mrs. M. Holmes; delegates to synod, H. T. Goodland, Col. G. A. Phillips, Col. A. W. R. Wilby and L. C. Lytton, and Col. Wilby and Mr. Lytton, auditors.

Despite stress of the times, the year 1933 was a fairly successful one for the church, according to the reports.

Mr. Twinning, the people's warden, presented the financial statement, showing receipts of $3,000 for the year, and a balance after disbursements had been made.

Rev. S. Ryall, the pastor, discussed the need for wider circulation of the church paper and maintenance of the church cemetery. He outlined plans for the permanent upkeep of the cemetery.

Your Baby and Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

RICKETS IS A WINTER AILMENT

Why do feeding authorities insist that babies should have generous amounts of cod liver oil during the winter season? Cod liver oil is a winter substitute for sunlight. During the temperate seasons nature provides us with an abundance of sunshine. When these beneficent rays fail directly on the individual's bare skin they manufacture a potent vitamin which circulates through the system. This vitamin D is essential to the health of teeth and bones and nervous system.

RICKETS

When the body lacks sufficient vitamin D, the results may be very dramatic and obvious. Because of the lack of minerals in the bones, there are definite changes which can be seen in the early stages in X-ray pictures and later on by the naked eye. Being too soft to hold up under pressure, the bones change their shape. As a result of uncorrected rickets, the child's chest bones curve out to form a pigeon breast, the legs bend inward or outward to cause bowlegs or knock-knees, the ends of the ribs become thickened into lumps like beads, and the ends of the long bones at wrists and ankles become thickened.

In the earlier stages before the bony deformities are noticeable the only unusual symptom may be the child's marked irritability, his tendency to cry and fuss for no cause whatever. His head may sweat profusely when heat or heavy clothes cannot possibly be accountable for it.

TEETHING

Children with rickets have convulsions at teething time. The teeth do not cause the convulsions but are merely a complicating factor. It is the deficiency of minerals which results in rickets.

The cure of rickets is, of course, only partly a matter of cod liver oil. Food is of vital importance. The right food, in sufficient amounts, and well chosen as to its mineral contents, is essential. Then the cod liver oil supplies the elusive factor which makes it possible for the body to store these minerals.

Perhaps we may one day discover other ways in which vitamin D may be added to the system during those months in which the sun is sparing of its rays. Until we do, cod liver oil or some other vitamin D preparation must constitute our insurance against the winter ailment rickets.

The monthly meeting of the Colwood Women's Institute was held Wednesday afternoon in Colwood Hall.

The president, Miss Kelly, was welcomed back. Rev. Mr. Acheson-Lyle addressed the meeting. It was decided to again commemorate the founding of the first Women's Institute at Stony Creek by holding the annual "Hoodless Day" at the February meeting, when Mrs. J. D. Gordon, president of the Provincial Board of Women's Institutes, will address the meeting. An invitation will be extended to members of nearby institutes to attend. A letter was read from a former president, Mrs. J. Hopwood, now president at Blubber Bay. Acknowledgment was made of a gift from Mrs. Pat Hodgins, Vancouver. Gold chrysanthemums centered the table presided over by Mrs. A. Godfrey and Mrs. G. M. Piercy.

The usual weekly practice for members and friends of the Colwood Burns Club will be held this evening.

OTTAWA POST
TO B.C. WOMAN

Mrs. Phyllis Gregory Turner,
U.B.C. Graduate, on Tariff
Board Staff

Roseland, Jan. 19.—Mrs. Phyllis Gregory Turner left here on Monday for Ottawa, where she will assume a post on the new Tariff Board.

In discussions as to the future work of the board, W. K. Ealing, member for Kootenay West, recognized the need of an economist.

He wanted to honor Roseland and the University of British Columbia and placed before Mr. Justice Sedgewick, chairman of the board, the qualifications of Mrs. Phyllis Gregory Turner of Roseland, from whom few women in Canada have attained such wonderful achievements.

Mrs. Turner's accomplishments at the U.B.C. and Bryn Mawr College for Women in Pennsylvania were so outstanding as to win for her an invitation to join the Wickersham Crime Commission.

This she declined in order to participate in the privileges of two other scholarships she had won. Following are some of her attainments:

In 1925 obtained from the University of British Columbia a scholarship in Economics at Bryn Mawr College.

Offered position as Research Assistant on Wickersham Crime Commission in the U.S.A. Simultaneously made fellow of the Department of Economics and Political Science at Bryn Mawr for following year, at the end of which she secured her M.A.

Given European Fellowship of $1,800 from Bryn Mawr for research abroad and at the same time the $1,250 Fellowship offered by the Canadian Fellowship of Canadian Women.

Sailed for England, August, 1927, spent a year in research and hearing lectures at the London School of Economics.

Attended seminars given by Prof. Noel Baker, M.P., on International Relations and by Prof. R. H. Tawney on Economic History, besides attending lectures by many other famous economists.

Carried on at the same time special research at the British Museum and other libraries on the subject of Ph.D. thesis, "Some Communist Sets in Canada."

Spent some time at the University of Marburg in Germany.

Returned to Bryn Mawr in 1928 and completed examinations for degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

Women's Organizations to Benefit by Hudson's Bay
Company's New Scheme

An innovation in modern advertising, by which leading women's organizations may derive club funds from their own gatherings is to be introduced by the Hudson's Bay Company on February 1.

The plan has been in operation in Vancouver for the last year and a half, and for several years in Seattle, where it has been received with splendid support by women's organizations. The movement has been organized by the Helen Malloy Company, the directors of which are the Misses Helen and Isobel Malloy, formerly of Victoria.

By arrangement with the Hudson's Bay Company, the Malloy Company, through its local representative, Miss Joyce Adams, is to undertake the preparation and serving of a complete luncheon in an attractive room supplied by "the Bay." The proceeds, with the exception of a small service charge, go to the club's treasury.

During the course of the luncheons, prior to the business or social sessions, which the clubs may desire to hold, a short talk will be given, advertising products served at the luncheon. Following this, the club will be free to carry on any of its own business or organize a bridge or tea if desired.

This plan has proven of particular interest and value to housewives who are shown just what products are used and the manner in which they are cooked.

The purpose of the plan is twofold, inasmuch as it not only assists the housewife in arranging new and novel dishes, but it also advertises local products which are to be used exclusively at all luncheons.

Clubs desiring to take advantage of the scheme and wanting more information may communicate with Miss Joyce Adams, R 4670.

Wallflower Row at Dances
Cruel to Young Women Who Are Not Summoned

By HELEN WELSHIMER

The dime-a-dance girl has an easy time compared to the five-dollar-a-week co-ed. The gentleman of the street pays his ten cents because he wants to go into a clinic with the syncope of the dance. But the college youth offers a greenback for release.

Being a well-mannered lad—at least his mother thinks he is—he can't murmur. "Dancing as a wallflower you'd have a place in anybody's garden. Let's just not go into our dance this evening."

When Arthur Murray, famous dancing master, announced the other day that any number of girls go wrong merely because they don't know how to dance, he wasn't exaggerating his theme in the least. It's just a few steps from the chairs where the chaperons sit with the girls who aren't summoned to the row of automobiles outside the door.

When an inebriated lad suggests that a girl park with him, in relief at escaping from her humiliation, she may tell him to step on the speedometer and get going.

And that, if you want to know, is why some good girls go wrong!

According to Mr. Murray, only ten out of every fifty girls at a dance are popular. Not because the unsought quota are lacking in charm, but because they don't know how to take their steps in the right direction.

EMBARRASSMENT

Life is more cruel to dancing women to-day than it was to their mothers. In the days gone by every girl had a dance programme which was filled for her. Whether or not she was asked or courted, she had partners. But now there is nothing more embarrassing than a girl who finds herself stranded with the same man as a fox trot takes an encore and a waltz begins.

She thinks of Cinderella and envies the cinder maiden her place by the hearth where the fire-fairies played. She wonders how the pumpkin coach favorite could have thought the music sweet as it drifted down the hill from the palace where the prince's fiddlers played.

THORNS FOR GIRL TO-DAY

When an erring knight suggests a stroll beyond the garden walls of course she goes. She isn't to be censured. She is to be pitied. And now then consult the same man as a fox trot takes an encore and a waltz begins.

Life, which isn't a bed of roses at any time for Eve's great-granddaughters, holds even more thorns at the modern ball. The stag line and the wallflower row have nothing in common. The black-trousered youths may dart forth and capture their prey. The girls must be stationary as the big-a-bra on a nineteenth century whetstone.

If somebody wanted to start a social renaissance that would put Eve back in the Garden of Eden, it could be arranged by bringing back the custom of filled dance programmes. Or better still, teaching every girl who expects to trip the light fantastic just how it is done. For as it is, when she misses a step she may find herself outside the door. And when she tries to come back the door may be locked.

BUILDS STRENGTH QUICKLY

Refuses Post As Relief Chairman

New Saanich Councillor Declines to Accept Leadership of Department He Criticized

Despite the fact that his election campaign was fought practically solely on relief issues, and his declarations that relief administration in Saanich required thorough investigation, Councillor E. C. Warren yesterday evening refused to accept the chairmanship of the unemployment relief committee when it was conferred upon him by Reeve Crouch when announcement was made of standing committees for the year.

It was the first occasion in more than twenty years on which a new councillor had refused the chairmanship of any municipal committee and is believed to be the first occurrence of its nature since the municipality was incorporated.

WHOLE COUNCIL AS COMMITTEE

After the councillor's announcement, the reeve stated later in the evening that the whole council would sit as the relief committee with the reeve in the chair. This marks a new departure in committee appointments in the municipality.

Councillor Warren's action was received with varied opinion. Councillor L. C. Hagan being the only one to openly support the new councillor's contention that the duties were too onerous for a new man.

The refusal was apparently received as a shock by other members of the council, as a moment's silence followed it before Reeve Crouch replied.

Councillor Warren succeeded Dennis Hoare as Ward Two representative. The latter having held the post of relief committee chairman since his election. Throughout the campaign, Councillor Warren's criticisms were levelled at Mr. Hoare and others who had administered relief. He was also chairman of a committee of ratepayers whose inquiries regarding Saanich relief resulted in the government investigation although the ratepayers did not directly request the investigation.

THE REFUSAL

In refusing the post, Councillor Warren said: "In view of the fact that I am the junior member of the council and I have not had previous municipal experience, I do not think I would be carrying out the wishes of the ratepayers in accepting this post. I am very sorry I cannot accept."

"We all need to get this experience sooner or later and in view of the fact that many criticisms had come from Ward Two regarding the 1932 relief administration, I felt this would be an opportunity for you to obtain an insight into the work," the reeve replied.

"While I support Mr. Warren's claim since he is a new member, I think it was a big mistake if Councillor Hoare lost the election over relief matters, interjected Councillor Hagan.

HAD NO EXPERIENCE

"If my memory serves me correctly, I recall that Councillor Hoare took this post without previous experience when he first came on the council," said Councillor H. D. Coton. "For this reason, Councillor Warren need have no fear that he is creating a precedent."

"We need a man from the inner wards for this job," stated the reeve, when, placing the position upon Mr. Warren, warned him that it was a hard one.

"Well, Councillor Eden is an inner ward man," put in Councillor Warren. "I am already chairman of the health committee and a member of the relief and finance committees," said Councillor G. S. Eden.

"Well, it doesn't matter gentlemen, I am sorry, but I cannot accept," said Councillor Warren's final ultimatum.

ELECTRICAL LAWS VIEWED

Not Rigid Enough, Says Delegation Calling on B.C. Works Minister

Representations that electrical inspection laws of the province be made more rigid were made to Hon. F. M. MacPherson, Minister of Public Works, yesterday by a delegation representing architects, engineers, contractors, underwriters, electrical contractors and municipal electrical inspectors.

The delegation was headed by C. H. E. Williams, chairman, and D. R. Roberts, secretary.

Safeguard against accidents resulting in loss of life, injuries and damage to property were put forward as the reasons for the appeal. The delegation asked that all electrical contractors and sub-trades be licensed in accordance with definite qualifications to be required of each. The delegation produced statistics to support the argument that defective electrical work had caused the loss of many lives and much property. It was also argued that licensing and requiring qualification were essential to the safety of the public and that the present conditions could not be properly carried out.

COMMITTEES ARE CHOSEN

Esquimalt Council Names Standing Bodies for Year at First Meeting

Appointment of standing committees and discussion of the municipality's financial condition featured the statutory meeting of the Esquimalt Council in the municipal hall yesterday evening.

The following groups were named to look after the different departments of the municipal works:

Finance—Councillor Albert Head, chairman, and Councillors F. S. Going and D. A. Henry.

Public Works Committee—Councillor P. S. Going, chairman, and the whole council.

Fire and Light Committee—Councillor George Wise, chairman, and Councillors Thomas Hatfield and Neil Fraser.

Relief Committee—Councillor Neil Fraser, chairman, and the whole council.

With newly-elected Reeve Alexander Lockiey in the chair, the 1934 board turned its attention to the financial questions of the district.

The reeve voiced his appreciation of the difficulties faced by Esquimalt, but expressed the hope they would be overcome if all members of the council pulled together for the good of the taxpayers.

He asked for the support of the others on the board and was pledged to it by the members individually.

During the meeting a resolution of praise for the twenty-years' services to the ratepayers of R. A. Anderson was passed.

Routine matters were discussed, many being laid on the table for the first regular business session next Monday evening.

NEW BUICK ON DISPLAY

Handsome New Models, With Smart Graceful Lines, Will Show at Davie Company

McLaughlin-Buick models for 1934, pioneering the General Motors entirely new front-wheel assembly, a chassis with an amazing nature, will make their debut to-morrow at the showrooms of H. A. Davie Limited, 860 Yates Street.

The knee-action front wheels have achieved a new standard of riding comfort and have had the effect of making the public interest in the new McLaughlin-Buicks. These cars, with which McLaughlin-Buick enters its second quarter-century—are featured by unusually handsome wind-up features besides independent front-wheel suspension.

Customer research by General Motors of Canada revealed a preference among 60,000 Canadian motorists for "riding comfort" ahead of many other qualities, and knee-action front wheels are the answer, along with many other refinements suggested by owners, all of which contribute to a gliding, bumpless ride.

New brakes give a wonderful feeling of safety as the cars can be controlled at any speed with only a slight pressure on the foot pedal, vacuum mechanism doing the rest.

To start the car it is only necessary to turn the ignition and depress the accelerator. On the dash, close at hand, is the Octane selector to be adjusted to suit spark timing to eliminate knock with any type of fuel. There is a new improved steering mechanism which, in connection with the knee-action front wheels, practically eliminates road shock, swaying and wheel tramp. Air-cushioned tires carrying low pressure are another new safety and comfort feature.

The Fisher bodies show the developed streamlines of 1934 to their fullest advantage. Fenders are larger and deeper with still longer valances.

Details of the knee-action front wheels are interesting. Each wheel is independently carried on an individual, frictionless coil spring which forms a part of McLaughlin-Buick individual suspension, with all that signifies in sturdy, dependable construction. The conventional front axle and stiff leaf springs are absent, the former being replaced by a special front cross-member, the latter by the coil springs and the V-shaped arms that are carried above and below them and from which the wheels are suspended, each as a unit in meeting and cushioning any possible road shock.

When one front wheel meets an obstacle, a knee-action develops, which is confined to that wheel affected and is not communicated to the other or to the frame and body as a whole.

MANY SEEK B.C. PRODUCTS

Herring, canned fish, butter, newspaper, unbleached sulphite and easy-bleaching sulphite pulp, sulphite board, wooden meat skewers, laths are products of British Columbia which interest firms in the Dominican Republic, Cyprus, Cuba, Irish Free State, Australia and New Zealand, according to data received from the Department of Trade and Commerce at Ottawa by the Bureau of Provincial Information here.

Agents in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, desire to represent exporter of herring, canned fish and butter are sought by a firm who will represent exporters in the Cyprus market.

Newspaper is sought by agents in Havana, Cuba. The Cuban market comprises roughly $80,000 worth of newspaper per annum.

Firms in Dublin, Irish Free State, desire to purchase unbleached and easy-bleaching sulphite pulp. The price is sought roughly $80,000 worth of newspaper per annum.

This firm, importing in from fifty to 100-ton lots, asks for c.i.f. Dublin, sterling quotations and samples. Another firm in Dublin desires business direct with manufacturer, is a firm who wishes to purchase wooden meat skewers.

American quotations are sought by the Cumberland Board of United Kingdom agents of Canadian firms, consequently this company is anxious to do direct business with the Canadian manufacturer, and want c.i.f. Dublin prices, in sterling, also samples.

Continuing a Tradition of Excellence

We are proud to present the 1934 models of McLaughlin-Buick, "Canada's Standard Car". In offering the "floating ride with knee-action front wheels", it is fitting that McLaughlin-Buick, bearing the name of the founder of this company, should be the car to introduce another revolutionary engineering advancement which will be a feature of General Motors lines in the coming year. McLaughlin-Buick has always been the first to be associated with milestones of automotive progress. Now, in introducing "knee-action front wheels", McLaughlin-Buick will give all who drive the 1934 models a new conception of riding comfort.

McLaughlin Motor Car Company, Limited

Announcing the NEW McLAUGHLIN-BUICKS

pioneering A FLOATING RIDE

(1) Your present car—front springs rigidly joined by an I-beam axle. When you hit a bump the front of the car bounces. (2) A man steps over a bump. No jar—because the knee bends freely. (3) Now, 1934—each front wheel of the new McLaughlin-Buick, on its own soft, coil spring, rises and falls like a knee to absorb the shocks, the car gliding steadily on.

"ABOLISH jar and bump and bounce from tomorrow's motor ride," urged more than 60,000 Canadians in response to General Motors' "Customer Research" questionnaires. So, the 1934 McLaughlin-Buick gives you, for the first time, A FLOATING RIDE.

Glance at the diagram above. It tells you just how Knee-Action Front Wheels enable the car to step over every bump and pot-hole in the road—ending forever the pitching and jolting of the ordinary motor ride.

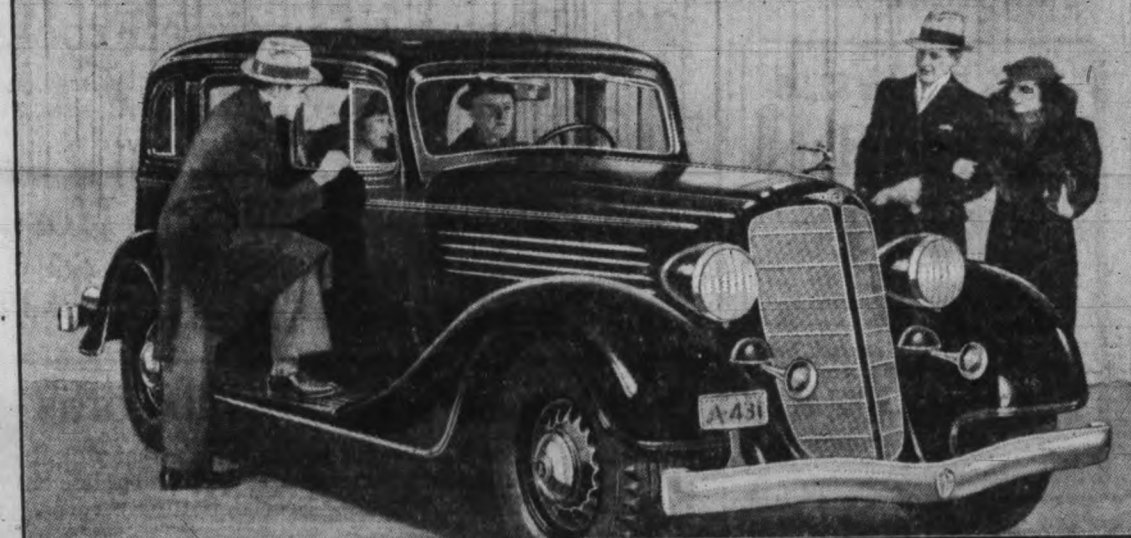

Your very first mile of travel will tell you what a revolutionary advance has been made. It will show you, too, how new and pace-setting the 1934 McLaughlin-Buick is in other great ways. . . Vacuum-Power Brakes, for example. . . Air Cushion Tires, softer and safer, with little more than half the air pressure of conventional balloons. . . New, dash-controlled Octane Selector. . . Completely Automatic Starting, now you just touch the accelerator treadle, and the McLaughlin-Buick Straight Eight engine does the rest. . . All-Silent Synchromesh Transmission, with every gear helical-cut for quiet operation. . . Sturdier, Roomier, Smarter Bodies by Fisher, featuring satin-finished chrome plating, longer V-type radiator, longer hood and deeper fenders, wind-streamed rear design and larger interiors, upholstered mostly in quality whipcords. . . Improved Fisher Ventilation, now even more effective in preventing drafts and cloudy windshields.

SEE the new McLaughlin-Buicks this very day! With Knee-Action Front Wheels to give you a truly FLOATING RIDE, and Fisher Ventilation to banish drafts—you will agree: AGAIN there is a better automobile . . . and again McLaughlin-Buick is building it.

UKELELE
Notes softly tinkle
Wake sleeping memories
Of past delight
In brown, young hands,
On gleaming sands.
Across far waters
It comes to me
The old enchantment
Of summer sea
And youth and laughter,
Of song and love
And their great currents
That drift, drift, drift
Notes falling softly
As falling leaves
With memories' magic

GREAT DEMAND FOR JAPANESE ORANGES
Wholesalers report that the entire shipment of 600 bundles of Japanese oranges, which is to be unloaded here on Monday, has already been sold in advance to retail merchants. This is to be a trial sale of the little fruit after the Christmas season following the speed with which the public cleared out the 28,000 cases, or approximately 1,400,000 oranges which were unloaded here in December. A further cargo will arrive two weeks later.

people. It lies between 113 degrees and 149 degrees F.
With coffee the temperature of the stomach rises rapidly and then returns to its original level in ten minutes.
Tests also were made on the use of ice bags, hot packs, hot water bags, heat lamps and electric pads, applied for anywhere from thirty-five minutes to two and one-half hours.

These experiments indicated that the application of heat to the abdomen produced a feeling of comfort when there was pain, but apparently is of no special value in healing the condition which causes the pain.

In fact, the authors expressed their opinion that it is doubtful that the benefit obtained is such as warrants the application of heat, especially in summer.

The feeling of comfort is apparently a local nerve reaction, without any generally valuable effects.

Also, the experiment indicated the doubtful advisability of putting ice packs on the stomach with the idea that these will in any way benefit the condition for which the ice is applied.

"Goonna-Goonna"

To Play Here

With flowers strewn in its path by the movie critics, "Goonna-Goonna" will open to-morrow at the Empire Theatre. The production has been highly praised for its magic setting, the background of the South Sea Island of Bali, the simplicity and naturalness of its cast, all natives, and for the fine dramatic story, woven from a legend handed down through centuries.

"Goonna-Goonna" was created and produced by Andre Roosevelt, a cousin of the late Theodore Roosevelt, and Armand Denis, research engineer for the Eastman Kodak Company.

Many Stars In
"Dancing Lady"

"Dancing Lady," which will open its engagement here at the Dominion Theatre next Monday, is a story adapted from a James Warner Bellah novel. It is a fast modern romance of backstage Broadway with novel angles and situations quite different from similar thrillers. The story is by Joan Crawford, May Robson and Franchot Tone take the leading roles.

The music in the production includes a number of popular songs sung by Joan Crawford and Art Jarrett of radio fame.

PLAYHOUSE THEATRE
"Charlie Chan's Greatest Case," the new Fox production now playing at the Playhouse Theatre, is doubly enriched by the selection of its two leading players, Warner Oland, famous for his portrayal of the Chan characterization, again carries the philosophizing detective through a maze of crime and clues. Heather Angel has the leading feminine role.

DOMINION THEATRE
James Dunn and Claire Trevor are teamed in the new Fox film production "Jimmy and Sally," which is showing at the Dominion Theatre.

It is the romance of two real youngsters, living across an apartment house wall who because they lack money and have extraneous ideas, must postpone their marriage. The more they postpone the marriage date, the more their quarrels increase.

He is the publicity man for a large corporation, whose attempts at putting across what he considered to be sure-fire stunts, continuously gets him into hot water. After a number of these stunts, he finds himself without a job. Meanwhile, his sweetheart tells him she does not like his non-marriage ideas and finally breaks with him. Then he hears that she has married there he realizes what he has failed to appreciate, both in job and a sweetheart, and returns, only to find more difficulties awaiting him.

COLUMBIA THEATRE
Through the fog and the mystery of night, Ronald Colman stumbles into the living image of himself and so starts off the stirring story of "The Masquerader" at the Columbia Theatre.

The thrills and the heart-throbs of the famous stage melodrama are brilliantly revived by Colman in a smooth and polished production by Samuel Goldwyn. Howard Eustbrook and Moss Hart adapted the screen play from John Hunter Booth's dramatization of the Catherine Cecil Thurston novel.

EMPIRE THEATRE
"The Boat From Shanghai" now showing at the Empire Theatre, is a story which develops into a rare and thrilling battle of wits between the crook and the detective, with first one then the other holding the upper hand, but so clever is each that the ultimate solution proves neither failure nor victory. A neat romance develops as the story progresses, but it is a love story that is unconventional in all its varying elements.

CAPITOL THEATRE
All the glamour, color and thrills of the price ring are realistically on display in "The Conquering Sex," the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film now showing at the Capitol Theatre.

Max Baer, who is paired with Myrna Loy in the new picture, proves himself as great a lover as he is a fighter and, according to reports, threatens to overthrow the standard movie meaning of the word "romantic." Tall, lithe and handsome, Baer's stature conjures up mental images of clean-limbed Greek gods and Socratic athletic students.

Connie Mack Has Not Wrecked His Philadelphia Ball Club

Young Team of Last Year Will Be No Pushover This Season

Harold Brynjolfsson and Stan Jackson Are Back in Town

IF YOU are preparing to shed tears for Connie Mack because he "wrecked" his Philadelphia Athletics by selling Lefty Grove and a few other bits of baseball material, take heart. All is not lost. The wrecking exercise conducted by Mack recently was not so disastrous as it appeared at first. Looking over the men he sold and those he kept, it begins to appear that he parted with only two very useful men. Grove and Mickey Cochrane. George Barnhart, Max Bishop and Rube Walberg contributed very little to the success of the A's last season.

Depending almost entirely upon a young team he had thrown together last spring, Mack moved into the closing months of the campaign with the best club in the league in the point of all around performance. The first of September found the A's in fourth place, five games behind Cleveland. The club gained nine full games on the latter, finishing third. An example of the Mack managerial brain is furnished by statistics which show that the Athletics made twenty-five more runs all season than Washington, the pennant winner, while making sixty-seven fewer hits. Jimmy Fox's forty-eight home runs also must be figured in that reckoning. But the outlook for 1934 is not so bleak as it was in 1933, when Mack really did toss his team to the winds. With an infield and outfield such as he has, Mack needs only one first class pitcher to make trouble this season for all clubs.

There's Fox as first base, the greatest hitter in the game, Frank Higginson as third baseman, hit .314 in his first year of big league competition, and is figured to be on the way to becoming the best third baseman in the league. McNair at short has established himself as a star, and it will be a return to his 1931 form at second base, there simply won't be any infield problem for the Athletics.

The outfield is settled. Roger Cramer in center has come through as one of the best in the league. Bob Johnson, in left, besides being a ball hawk of the Charlie Jamieson order, is one of the league's most dangerous and timely hitters. Right field will be divided between Big Ed Coleman, Bing Miller and Lou Finney.

The A's need a first class pitcher. One of a number of young men who looked promisingly during the last month of the 1933 season may arise to fill this need. The backbone of the staff may be regarded as a young pitcher, Bob Kline, obtained from Boston, and Merritt Cain, who won thirteen and lost twelve for the A's last year. Kline, who won seven while losing eight for the seventh place Boston Sox last year, should win between fifteen and twenty games for a club like the A's.

Claret, McKeltham, young Ray Coombs, Dietrich and Marcum showed at intervals last year that they knew what it was all about. Mack is certain to concentrate on these and other young pitchers when training begins at Fort Myers, Fla., March 1.

No less astute an authority than Babe Ruth believes that despite the sale of Grove and Cochrane, the A's will be the team to beat for the pennant this year. Ruth likes the young pitchers introduced by Mack in the last few weeks of the 1933 drive.

The catching corps, consisting of Berry, Madjeski and Hayes, is not so hot, but there are several signal departments in the American League no better.

Two of Victoria's best-known athletes, Harold Brynjolfsson and Stan Jackson, have arrived back in town. Brynjolfsson, holder of city and provincial golf crowns at various times during his career, has been on the mainland and at Calgary for the last couple of years, while Jackson has been engaged in six-day bicycle racing on eastern Canada and United States tracks. Brynjolfsson's plans for the future are indefinite, although he expects to remain at home for some time. Jackson will spend the summer with his parents and hopes to head east again in the fall to resume his campaign on the bike tracks. Both boys are looking fit, although Jackson is still nursing a slight limp as the result of his fall in the race at Cleveland several weeks ago.

Local League After Meets With Seattle, Vancouver, Portland

Tentative Plans for B.C. Championships on Good Friday Laid

Victorians Want More Competition

Victoria's swimming fraternity wants bigger and better competition. To meet the wish the Vancouver Island and Swimming League this week drafted tentative plans for a major gala with Vancouver, probably along the lines of British Columbia championships, and backed a proposal by A. H. Cowlishaw, manager of the Crystal Garden, to invite Portland or Seattle clubs to the city for a meet at some date in the not too distant future.

In preparation for the major events, the league decided to have a smaller gala on February 12, when local talent could be picked-out for the more important contests of the future.

Good Friday was suggested as a possible date for the races with Vancouver and plans will go ahead with that day tentatively set for the water duels.

Providing the arrangements are carried through, the event will be the first big indoor aquatic meeting since the Canadian Olympic trials here prior to the games in 1932. The competition would prove a great boon to swimming circles in the city. The Victorians have been rather isolated recently, while Vancouver performers have been forging ahead as the result of their contests with Seattle and other clubs.

LETTER SENT

Definite plans for the Good Friday affair will be left in abeyance until a reply is received to a letter sent by Captain M. D. Harbord, president of the Vancouver Island Swimming League, to Vancouver's Jack, swimming leader in Vancouver. In the communication, Captain Harbord outlined the ideas of the Victoria body and sought the co-operation of the mainlanders in holding a gala.

Phil Bond, V.A.S.C., and Ernie Peden, Pacific Swimming Club, were named at the meeting this week to draw up a program for the league for the next month. The Pacific Club will arrange for officials.

SUGGESTS CUP

The suggestion that Seattle or Portland teams be brought to the city for a meet, Mr. Cowlishaw also brought up the possibility of securing a cup for competition with the United States squads.

With the approval of the league, he will take the matter up with the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

At the meeting Mr. Cowlishaw also stated the manager of Lake Crescent resort, near Port Angeles, has requested he take a Victoria team across the Straits for an exhibition this season.

Ernie Peden, head of the Pacific Club, was elected vice-president of the league at the meeting.

THREE HOCKEY TEAMS IN TIE

Vancouver, Seattle and Portland on Even Terms in Northwest Hockey

With Calgary Tigers sitting on top of the Northwestern Professional Hockey League standings, the other four teams in the circuit were taking no chances on a late rush to land them in the playoff berths and to-day were bunched in second place, five points behind the leaders.

At Seattle Frank Poyston's speedy young Sea Hawks turned on the heat yesterday evening against Vancouver Lions, and the result was one of the highest scoring contests of the season with Hawks on the long end of a 7 to 5 score.

From late in the opening period, when Taber and Powley slapped in two quick goals to break a 1 to 1 deadlock, Hawks were up in front.

Both squads scored two counters in each of the last two sessions.

Lions met Buckaroos at Portland to-night with a win for either squad giving them undisputed possession of second place.

The teams follow:
Vancouver—Clark, goal; Arnett, Redpath, defense; Smith, centre; McAdam, Mason, wings; Suba—McCartney, Palm, Kirk and Cressy.
Seattle—Venne, goal; Arbour, Fraser, defense; Jackson, centre; Hemmerling, Whitfield, wings; Suba—Gillhooley, Dyck, Taber and Powley.
Referee—Vadis Lindsay.

SUMMARY
First period—1, Vancouver, Mason (Smith), 1:06; 2, Seattle, Hemmerling (Whitfield), 1:15; 3, Seattle, Taber (Fraser), 10:05; 4, Seattle, Powley (Arnett), 15:51. Penalties: None.

TILDEN AND VINES WILL MEET GERMAN

U.S. Professional Tennis Stars Ready to Accept Nusslein Challenge

Cleveland, Jan. 19.—A series of championship tennis matches between Bill Tilden, Ellsworth Vines and Hans Nusslein, with the latter's world pro title at stake, appeared to-day a likelihood for next spring.

Informed Nusslein desired such a meeting, Tilden said: "Vines and myself will accept with pleasure and will meet him out of doors in the spring, each in a series of five matches, if and when satisfactory terms, dates and places for play can be arranged. Tilden explained he believed the German player was confused in the names of the titles.

"Nusslein is the holder of the professional world's title, Tilden said. "Vines and I are playing for the indoor world's professional championship, which is held by me, not Mr. Nusslein."

KEEN RIVALRY IN TRACK CONTESTS THIS EVENING

If two athletes, who have a wholesome regard for each other's abilities and who are personally friendly can have a grudge race, Chuck Cunningham, Victoria Y.M.C.A., and Herb Barclay, Varsity, will have one to-night in the indoor track meet at the Armories. Crack half-milers of the city and the university, respectively, they have met on two previous occasions last summer. In both the Victorian won, beating Barclay in Vancouver and in Nanaimo. Cunningham is reported in particularly good shape and should give Barclay the race of his life. The event is one of the first on the programme, which is scheduled to start at 8:15 o'clock. There will be another bit of by-play in the rivalry between Olive Gorton and Yvonne Dingley, Duncan girls, who have entered all four women's events and who will be out to best each other. With many of the best athletes in the province slated for action, the meet should be an outstanding success. All proceeds will be devoted to the Kiwanis charity fund.

CRONIN WILL REMAIN

Winnipeg Jan. 19.—Carl Cronin, stocky coach of the Winnipeg Rugby Club, western Canada champions, will remain in Winnipeg. Reports he was considering an offer to coach an eastern squad were without fact, he said on arrival from Chicago to-day.

Carl admitted he had received tempting offers to transfer his affections to "certain cities in the east." One of these came from Hamilton. The "eastern city" was seeking a non-player coach and a flume requested Cronin to recommend anyone he thought suitable.

Wheat Firmness Due To Lack Of Selling Pressure

Canadian Press
Winnipeg, Jan. 19.—Wheat prices held steady on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today in dull trading, but the firmness was due almost entirely to lack of selling pressure. Closing quotations showed an advance of 1/2 cent.

Traders kept their eyes on unsettled monetary quotations and awaited developments. Buying, aside from scattered orders, was light. May wheat closed at 69 1/2 cents and July at 70 1/2 cents.

Sharp rebound in sterling on foreign exchange apparently left traders in an uncertain position, and the market took watchful, waiting appearance. Operations were neither large nor important.

Here's a "Regular Girl"

Adds Up Present-Day Perfection

The Ideal Girl Is Prudent Without Being a Prude, Good-looking, Well-dressed and Intelligent — She Likes Boys Without Being Boy-crazy, and She Has a Heart and Mind and Soul, and a Real Purpose in Life

A GROUP of girls asks me to give my opinion of what constitutes an ideal girl. There is, of course, no such thing as an ideal girl. She is a fantasy of dreamers. But there are lots of regular girls, not too good for human nature's daily food, but good enough for anybody, and my conception of one of them is a girl who is:

Good-looking. Not necessarily beautiful. No living picture for me, but a girl who is balm to the eyes because she is healthy and strong and supple and vigorous and bubbling over with life. She must have bright eyes and a clear skin that comes of plenty of fresh air and exercise, and she must look as if she could shoulder her part of the burden of life and carry on without breaking under it.

She must be well-dressed. Not dolled up in inappropriate finery. Not loaded down with junky cheap jewelry. Not painted up until she looks like a caricature of a human being. But she must have the clothes sense that will enable her to make the most of herself and to choose the colors that flatter her and the lines that make the best of her figure. I see no virtue in a shiny nose or pallid lips, but I would have my girl apply cosmetics like an artist and not go around with her face plastered with white like a clown nor with a mouth that looked like a raw cut of butchers' meat.

She must be intelligent. She must read and study and make herself an interesting and agreeable companion. A pretty face does not atone for an empty head. Nobody wants to listen now to the chatter of a female moron, no matter how cute she is to look at. No dumb Doras for me.

She must be a person. Not a stilly little butterfly to dance in the sunshine. Not a doll to be dressed up in Paris finery, but a human being with a mind and a heart and a soul and some real purpose in life. She might be a domestic girl, who looked forward to a career as wife and mother. If so, she would fit herself for being a good wife and mother by learning how to cook and run a budget, and she would enter into marriage determined to make a success of it.

Or she might be a business girl. If so, she would make herself an expert in her line. She would give the best that was in her to her job, and she would be proud of being independent and earning her own living instead of pretending that she was a society girl who had gone into an office because she was bored with parties. She would never regard a business office as a hunting ground for a husband, nor consider that vamping a rich old boss was more profitable than working a typewriter, nor would she try to substitute sex for bad spelling, poor salesmanship and general inefficiency.

My girl would have enthusiasms. She would be alive to her fingertips. She would enjoy everything because life would be one prolonged thrill to her. She would be touched to tears by what was fine literature and music and art. She would be a hero-worshiper. It would be a delight to take her out, because she would always have such a good time.

She would relish a sandwich and beer supper just as much as she would one of terrapin and champagne. She could dance as merrily at a barn dance as at the Ritz, and she would get as much fun out of riding in a tin lizzy as she would in a limousine. There would be nothing lackadaisical or dead or stupid about her, as there is about so many girls who think that they are being sophisticated when they are merely sunk and dull.

My girl would like boys and their attentions, but she would not be boy-crazy nor run after them. Her attitude would be that she could take 'em or leave 'em and be happy either way. She would never telephone a boy and try to date him up. Nor would she ever open up a correspondence with a boy and write him two letters to his one. Nor would she make running when a boy drove up to her door and honked for her to come out. She would not be a cheap girl. She would hold herself dear and make herself desirable in boys' eyes by making it a privilege for them to take her out.

My girl would be feminine. She would know that when a girl throws away her womanhood she casts her best card into the discard. So she would dress like a lady and act like a lady. She would never wear pants nor ape men in dress nor manners, because she would have enough intelligence to know that the girl in chiffrons can always leave the girl in breeches at the post, and that no man ever proposes to a girl who is a bad understudy of his little brother.

My girl would be prudent without being a prude. She would be a good sport, but she would not be a tough one. She would be chummy with men, but not familiar or permit familiarities. She would not hold men off at arm's length, but neither would she suffer them to paw her as pay for taking her to a movie. She would not be in a state of perpetual shock at the wickedness of the world, but she would know her world well enough to take care of herself in it.

That is my idea of a regular girl, and thank Heaven there are plenty of her.

TWO LAWYERS REPRESENTED THE CATERPILLARS IN COURT.

BETWEEN the eleventh and eighteenth centuries, there were numerous instances of lawsuits being brought against insects. But law was cheap in those days, and much discussion pro and con could be had for a small sum. The farmers usually were the losers in these suits, for the insects kept right on eating, no matter what decision the judge made.

The regular monthly meeting of the Metchosin branch of the Women's Auxiliary was held Thursday afternoon at the vicarage. The president, Miss Blythe, was in the chair. Among the officers' reports received was that of Mrs. Bolton, informing the meeting of the organization of a little helpers' branch. Plans for the branch's activities were discussed and it was decided to hold a birthday party on Friday, January 26, in aid of W.A. funds. At the home of Mrs. H. Bell.
